Speech given by the Hon'ble Prime Minister

Speech given by the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Government People's Republic of Bangladesh Sheikh Hasina on the eve of Golden Jubilee of the Independence of Bangladesh

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina addresses the nation on the eve of Independence Day, Thursday, March 25, 2021

In her address to the nation on the eve of Independence Day, the prime minister urges all to ensure that no one can jeopardize Bangladesh's progress

Mentioning numerous statistics demonstrating Bangladesh's development, Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina on Thursday attributed the country's accomplishments to the hard work of the masses.

She was addressing the nation on the eve of Independence Day, marking the golden jubilee of Bangladesh's independence. The speech, which began at 7:30 pm, was broadcast on Bangladesh Television and Bangladesh Betar, as well as private TV channels and radio stations.

The farmers, laborers, professionals, and entrepreneurs of the country, along with the expatriates, had made the impossible task of poverty alleviation possible with their hard work, ability, and innovative spirit, the prime minister said.

"My government has just created a supportive environment with its policies. You have proved that the people of Bangladesh can make anything possible if they are given a favorable environment," she added.

'Do not let anyone hinder Bangladesh's progress'

Sheikh Hasina also urged people to take a vow afresh not to allow anyone to hinder Bangladesh's democratic and development progress by playing ducks and drakes with their fate.

She called upon the people to work for building Bangladesh as a developed, prosperous, and non-communal Sonar Bangla [Golden Bengal] as dreamt by the Father of the Nation.

“Let us build Bangladesh as a developed, prosperous and non-communal Sonar Bangla by forgetting all the differences and being imbued with the spirit of the

Noting that the celebration of the golden jubilee of independence should not just be a formality, she said: “On the occasion of the birth centenary of the Father of the Nation and the golden jubilee of independence, we have to take a vow afresh to take our country to a new height.”

Sheikh Hasina said Bangladesh has achieved unimaginable success in the socio-economic index as a result of her government’s tireless work over the past 12 years.

Last month, she said, Bangladesh received the final recommendation to graduate from the least developed country (LDC) group.

“Bangladesh has not only surpassed its neighbors in various indexes like life expectancy, gender equality, universal primary education, women’s education, women’s political rights, women and child mortality, sanitation, and food availability but also exceeded many developed countries in many cases,” she said.

But the path of this development has not been smooth at all as the anti-liberation forces inside and outside the country carried out various ill-motivated activities to hinder the progress of Bangladesh. “This process continues. So we all will have to resist all anti-state attempts by playing the role of vigilant watchdogs.”

Sheikh Hasina said passing half a century of independence is a significant milestone for the life of a nation.

‘Proud country’

“For us, this golden jubilee celebration has become more colorful as the Bangladesh Awami League, forming the government, started running the government with the ideology of the Liberation War. Today Bangladesh stands raising its head in the world as a proud country proving all the negative and pessimistic predictions against Bangladesh wrong,” she said.

Even a decade ago, Sheikh Hasina said, Bangladesh was presented as an example of poverty. "But today development experts are presenting Bangladesh as a role model for poverty alleviation and development."

Presenting the current picture of several socio-economic indicators compared to the 2005-06 fiscal year, she said the per capita income has increased to $2,064 now from just $543, while the poverty rate dropped to 20.5% from 41.5%, the GDP size rose to Tk28,00,000 crore from only Tk4,82,337 crore and the foreign currency reserve to $44 billion from only $0.744 billion during the period.

She said the budget size has increased to Tk5,68,000 crore in the current fiscal year from only Tk61,000 crore in 2005-06 fiscal year, while the average life expectancy to 72.6 years in 2019-20 fiscal from 59 years in 2005-06 fiscal, the infant mortality rate has come down to 28 from 84 per thousand, the maternal mortality rate to 165 from 370 per 100,000 and the power generation capacity has increased to 24,421 megawatts from 4,900 megawatts. "Today's achievement is, in fact, the achievement of the common people of the country."

She said Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman had declared the Independence of Bangladesh in the early hours of March 26, 1971, just before he was arrested by the Pakistani army. His announcement spread across the country through the wireless of the then EPR, she said.

The independence of Bangladesh had come as the result of the 24-year continuous political struggle, and Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman had led from the front in this struggle from the beginning to the end, said Sheikh Hasina, the eldest daughter of Bangabandhu.

"Today, we are proud citizens of an independent and sovereign Bangladesh thanks to the birth of that great man named Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib. Today, we are proud of our own country, language, and culture because he was born," said the prime minister added.

Sheikh Mujib is the creator of a country and a state. "So, we are celebrating his birth centenary and the golden jubilee of independence simultaneously," she said.

On the eve of Independence Day, the prime minister extended her sincere greetings to all citizens of Bangladesh living at home and abroad.

Sheikh Hasina thanked the people of Bangladesh for keeping the Bangladesh Awami League, the political party that led the Liberation War, in power while celebrating the two important milestones.

Speech of Honourable Prime Minister of India

(Dear friends from Shonar Bangladesh,)

The love that all of you have shown me today, makes this one of the most precious moments of my life.

I am pleased that you have included me in the celebrations of this important milestone in the development journey of Bangladesh.

Today is not only the National day of Bangladesh, it is also the 50th anniversary of its independence.

And it is this year that we complete 50 years of India-Bangladesh friendship.

This birth centenary year of Jatir Pita, (the Father of the Nation), Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman is further strengthening the relations between our two countries.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to their Excellencies, President Abdul Hamid, Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and to the citizens of Bangladesh.

You have invited India with a great deal of affection, to be a part of these proud moments, this celebration.

On behalf of all Indians, I extend my warmest greetings, to all of you, and to all the citizens of Bangladesh.

I pay tribute to Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, who dedicated his whole life for Bangladesh and its people. For us Indians, it is a matter of pride, that we had the opportunity to honour Respected Sheikh Mujibur, with the Gandhi Peace Prize.

Friends

Today, I remember the hundreds of thousands of sons and daughters of Bangladesh who suffered countless atrocities, who shed their blood, and put their lives at stake for their nation, their language, their culture.

Today, I remember the shurbeer of the Muktiyudho, (Liberation war). Today I remember the martyr, Dhirendranath Datta, the educationist, Rafiq Uddin Ahmed, martyrs of the language movement, Salam, Rafiq, Barkat, Jabbar and Shafiur.

Today I also bow to those brave soldiers of the Indian army who stood shoulder to shoulder with their brothers and sisters from Bangladesh in the Liberation war.

Those who shed their blood in the Muktiyudho, sacrificed their lives, and played a very big role in making the dream of an independent Bangladesh come true.

Field Marshal Sam Manekshaw, General Aurora, General Jacob, Lance Naik Albert Ekka, Group Captain Chandan Singh, Captain Mohan Narayan Rao Samant, there are so many brave men, such as these, whose stories of leadership and courage continue to inspire us even today.

The Government of Bangladesh has dedicated a war memorial to honour the memory of these brave martyrs in Ashuganj. I express my gratitude to you for that.

I am pleased that many Indian soldiers who were part of the (the Liberation war) are also here with us today at this special event.

I would also like to share with my brothers and sisters in Bangladesh, and the youth here, one other thing, and I say this with a lot of pride.

The struggle for the liberation of Bangladesh was also one of the first movements that I took part in.

I must have been 20-22 years old, when along with many of my friends, I did satyagraha, (a form of passive resistance), for the liberation of the people of Bangladesh.

As part of my efforts to support the liberation of Bangladesh, I also courted arrest and had a taste of life in prison. That is to say, there was as much of a longing for Bangladesh's freedom in India, as there was in Bangladesh.

The images of the heinous crimes and atrocities committed by the Pakistani army deeply disturbed us and gave us countless sleepless nights!

Gobind Haldar had said,

which means-

Those who gave Bangladesh it's freedom by shedding oceans of blood,

We will not forget them,

We will not forget them.

Friends,

A tyrannical Government was massacring its own citizens.

It was crushing their language, their voice, their identity.

The world did not talk as much about the cruelty, oppression and atrocities of 'Operation Searchlight' as it should have.

Friends,

In the midst of all this, a ray of hope for the people here, and for us Indians, was Bangabandhu Mujibur Rahman.

Bangabandhu's courage, his leadership, ensured that no power could keep Bangladesh under subjugation.

Bangabandhu announced,

The struggle this time, is a struggle for emancipation,

The struggle this time, is a struggle for independence.

Under his leadership, common people, the farmers, the youth, teachers, workers all came together to form the Mukti Bahini, or the Liberation army.

Therefore, this occasion, of the Mujib year, is also a day to remember his vision, his ideals and his courage.

This is also a time to remember, once again, the "eternal rebel", and the spirit of the Liberation war,

Friends,

There was widespread support for the freedom struggle of Bangladesh from every corner of India and from all Parties. The efforts and the important role of the then Prime Minister, Smt Indira Gandhi is known to all. At that same time on 6 December 1971, Atal Bihari Vajpayee said, "we are not only fighting along with those who are sacrificing their lives in the freedom struggle, we are also trying to give a new direction to history. Today, the blood of those in Bangladesh who are fighting for their own freedom, and that of Indian soldiers, is flowing together. This blood will create such relations that will withstand all pressures and intrigues."

Our former President, Pranab Mukherjee ji had called Bangabandhu a "tireless statesman". He had said that Sheikh Mujibur Rahman's life was a symbol of patience, commitment and self- control.

Friends,

It is a happy coincidence that the 50th anniversary of Bangladesh's liberation and the milestone of the 75th year of India's independence have arrived together.

For both of our countries, in the 21st Century, our journey over the next 25 years, will be very important.

We have a common heritage, we have common development also.

We have common goals, and we have common challenges too.

We must remember that though we have similar possibilities in the area of trade and development, we also face similar threats, such as terrorism.

The ideologies and forces behind these inhuman acts are active even today. We not only need to be alert, but also need to stay united to fight them.

Both our countries have the power of democracy; we have a clear vision for moving forward. India and Bangladesh moving forward together, is equally important for the development of the entire region.

And therefore,

Today, the governments of both India and Bangladesh, are understanding this sensitivity, and making meaningful efforts in this direction. We have demonstrated that with mutual trust and cooperation, solutions can be found for all issues.

Our Land Boundary Agreement also bears testimony to this.

Even during this corona epidemic there has been excellent coordination between both countries.

We have worked together to create the SAARC Covid Fund, and coordinated training for our human resources.

India is very pleased that Made in India vaccines have been helpful for our brothers and sisters in Bangladesh.

I remember the images, when this year on the 26th January, on the occasion of India's Republic day, the Tri-Service Contingent of the Bangladesh Armed Forces marched to the tune of Shuno ekti Mujibur theke (a popular wartime song that hails Sheikh Mujibur Rahman)

The future of India and Bangladesh, is just waiting for countless such moments full of goodwill, and of mutual trust.

Friends,

In order to strengthen India-Bangladesh relations, it is equally important to have a better connect between the youth of both countries.

On the occasion of the 50th anniversary of India-Bangladesh relations, I would like to invite 50 young entrepreneurs from Bangladesh to India.

They should come to India, connect with our start up and innovation ecosystems, meet our venture capitalists.

We too will learn from them, and they too will get an opportunity to learn.

Along with this, I am also announcing, Subarno Jayanti scholarships for the youth of Bangladesh.

Friends,

Respected Sheikh Mujibur Rahman once said,

“Bangladesh will definitely become independent. There is no power on earth which can keep Bangladesh under subjugation”.

This declaration by Bangabandhu was not only a warning to those who opposed the existence of Bangladesh, it was also an expression of faith in the capabilities of Bangladesh.

I am pleased that under Sheikh Hasina’s able leadership, Bangladesh is showing its dynamism to the world.

Those who had objected to the creation of Bangladesh, those who looked down upon the people of Bangladesh as inferior, those who had apprehensions about the existence of Bangladesh, Bangladesh has proved them all wrong.

Friends,

We are inspired by the common legacy of Kazi Nazrul Islam and Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore.

Gurudev had said -

This means,

We have no time to lose,

we must move forward for change, and we cannot delay any further.

What he said holds true for India and Bangladesh equally.

For our millions of people,

For their future,

For our fight against poverty.

For the fight against terrorism.

Our goals are common; therefore, our efforts should also be united.

I am confident that India and Bangladesh will together progress at a fast pace.

Once again, I thank you all very much.

Long live India Bangladesh friendship!

I conclude my speech with these good wishes.

Jay Bangla!

Jay Hind!

MESSAGE

1. I am pleased to learn that the India Bangladesh Chamber of Commerce and Industry is publishing “Luminous IBCCI” on the Golden Jubilee of Independence of Bangladesh, and to mark Mujib Borsho.
2. Bangladesh is India’s most important trading partner in South Asia, and a cherished friend and neighbour. Our bilateral ties have witnessed tremendous growth, especially over the last few years. And our friendship is built upon the foundation of shared cultural, economic, political and diplomatic relations, and the unique bond established through our partnership in the Bangladeshi people’s war of Liberation.
3. Today, the Governments of India and Bangladesh share a commitment to create an enabling environment to make the bilateral economic and commercial relationship a key driver of our partnership. Both Governments are working on improving cross-border connectivity by facilitating road, rail, waterways and air transportation and on simplification of the regulatory environment facilitating trade and investment. Emphasis is also being given to improving trade and immigration infrastructure at our borders to facilitate the flow of goods and people.
4. My best wishes are with the business community of both countries, along with the commitment of my colleagues and I to promote the business relationship between our countries.

IBCCI

Our activities will continue to keep consistent with the global trading environment, and I am looking forward to another year of prosperity, creativity, and business success for our valued members.

| MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT |

It is my immense pleasure that we have been able to publish “LUMINOUS IBCCI” on the eve of the 50th Independence of Bangladesh and Mujib Borsho as a whole.

It deserves to be noted that India comprehensively cooperated with Bangladesh in the Liberation War of 1971. We review India's participation with appreciation.

I'd like to express my gratitude to the Board and all esteemed sponsors for their support in making our efforts a success.

IBCCI plays a significant role by its commendable performance in integrating the economic trade activities between India and Bangladesh. It may be noted that IBCCI on its part is relentlessly lobbying the government towards the development of overall connectivity in general and waterways as well as land port connectivity in particular between Bangladesh and India.

The chamber is also pursuing to promote Indian investment in Bangladesh and Bangladeshi investment in India as well as encourage cultural exchanges between the two countries. Even during this pandemic, it had played a vital role which strengthens the trade bonds between these two countries significantly making the process of import and export easier to establish more businesses. I strongly believe this special publication will generate more for Indian and Bangladeshi business people which will strengthen the bilateral business cooperation across the two borders and enhance the economy.

Our activities will continue to keep consistent with the global trading environment, and I am looking forward to another year of prosperity, creativity, and business success for our valued members.

We appreciate all recommendations and comments on how to improve the Luminous IBCCI in the next release.

Celebration of Bangabandhu's birth centenary and the golden jubilee of Bangladesh's independence which uplifted Indo-Bangla ties to a new height which is an inspiration for both nations.

| CONVENER'S NOTE FOR 'LUMINOUS IBCCI' |

This region has been known as Indian subcontinent for last thousands of years. India became independent from British colonial regime through a nonviolent upheaval in 1947 whereas Bangladesh was set free from the repressive Pakistan rule through the glorious and blood-spilling Liberation War of 1971 under the leadership of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

India comprehensively cooperated with Bangladesh during the war. I pay my heartfelt tribute to the Bangladeshi and Indian martyrs who gave away their lives during the war. India's unalloyed love and unconditional support at that time is never to be forgotten. After Bangladesh's independence, India enormously helped Bangladesh in rebuilding its infrastructure and set up commercial ties between both countries.

It brings me tremendous gratification that on the 50th anniversary of Bangladesh's independence, and Mujib Borsho as a whole, we have been able to release " 'LUMINOUS IBCCI.' "

The relationship of India and Bangladesh is anchored in history, culture, language, values of secularism and many other common factors. In the last couple of years, this bonding was further strengthened through cooperation in new and high technology areas.

We reside at a time where globalization and international market integration are accelerating. It is a fantastic opportunity for the Bangladeshi and Indian business communities to profit from the use of business potentials, and the route is made easier by the IBCCI chamber.

IBCCI helps the business in various ways like facilitating the transfer of technology between the two countries, in respect of industrial and commercial innovations as well as helping set up an export-processing zone in Bangladesh where Indian investors will feel encouraged to invest.

Bangladesh Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and Indian Premier Narendra Modi both were present in March 2021 in the celebration of Bangabandhu's birth centenary and the golden jubilee of Bangladesh's independence which uplifted Indo-Bangla ties to a new height which is an inspiration for both nations.

Over the past decades the commercial affiliation between India and Bangladesh has much expanded which is expected to be more strengthened and liberalized in days to come.

We hope to look forward to a supportive bilateral trading framework in strengthening the two countries' connections and pave the way for a better Bangladesh.

I would like to express my wholehearted appreciation to all involved for their steadfast guidance and encouragement in the publishing of the LUMINOUS IBCCI.

I am also thankful to the sponsors, patrons, advisers and officials of IBCCI Secretariat who made this happen. We all are passing a very crucial time due to the Covid 19 pandemic. I wish everyone to stay safe and stay well.

Long live Bangladesh-India friendship.

This Member Directory will create more pathways for Indian and Bangladeshi business people which will strengthen the bilateral business cooperation across the two brotherly countries.

| MEMBER SECRETARY 'S NOTE FOR 'LUMINOUS IBCCI' |

It is my immense pleasure to present you "LUMINOUS IBCCI" which is going to include all the information and details of members of this Chamber along with the message from the two Hon'ble Prime Ministers and article from two renowned economists of Bangladesh and India.

It is to be mentioned here that since the inception of IBCCI on 26th December 2006 we did not have any members directory. It is for the first time we have been able to publish it. It has become possible with the inspiration of the president of IBCCI Mr. Abdul Matlub Ahmad. At the same time, I am very much indebted to the convenor of this publication Vice-President Mr. M Shoeb Chowdhury for his extraordinary guidance all the way.

This Member Directory will create more pathways for Indian and Bangladeshi business people which will strengthen the bilateral business cooperation across the two brotherly countries. It will also help the economy to boost through the trades taking place.

I believe this publication will work as a guide for the products and services of the member firms to use this for their business means which will help to expand trade on a greater scale.

I wish you all the success of the "LUMINOUS IBCCI".

HARNESSING BENEFITS OF CONNECTIVITY

Dr. Atiur Rahman

The relations between India and Bangladesh are firmly grounded on the shared pains of 1971. Bangladesh humbly remembers the supreme sacrifices made by the Indian soldiers on the soil of Bangladesh during the 1971 war of liberation, and the other supports we received from the people and government of India.

Bangabandhu reflected this sentiment on February 6, 1972 on his maiden state visit to India, while speaking to the huge crowd at the Brigade Parade Ground in Kolkata. Professing that the Bangladesh-India friendship would exist forever, Bangabandhu said, "...the Indian people and the Indian government came forward (to support Bangladesh during the war of liberation). So did the Indian army and our brothers from West Bengal, Tripura, Meghalaya, and Assam. I thank you on behalf of 75 million people of Bangladesh." (A. H. Khan (edited), 'Jatir Pita Bangabandhur Nirbachito Bhashon (Selected Speeches of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu)', Volume 02, page 169, Ekattor Prokashoni, 2011).

The friendship between the two neighbors has grown stronger with time as we share the same cultural heritage and history. Bilateral relations are at a new height now given the deep political and strategic understanding between the heads of the two friendly governments.

There is huge enthusiasm in Bangladesh in welcoming South Asian heads of state and governments including Mr. Narendra Modi, the Indian Premier, in the celebrations of the birth centenary of Bangabandhu and golden jubilee of the independence of Bangladesh. This will further heighten both regional and bilateral relations between the neighbors. Together we aspire to build a prosperous South Asia learning from each other's success stories of fighting against the common enemy i.e. poverty.

It is very heartening to see that the Bangladesh Premier Sheikh Hasina, like Bangabandhu, is eager to harness the maximum benefits of the India-Bangladesh friendship. On 09 March 2021, she said, "Political boundaries should not become physical barriers to trade (between Bangladesh and India)" (UNB News, 09 March 2021).

She further said, "We are creating a new era in South Asia providing connectivity to India. We are in a region which has remained conservative in opening up and where inter-regional trade is far below potential". She said all this while virtually inaugurating the Maitree Setu (Friendship Bridge) over Feni River along with her Indian counterpart Prime Minister Narendra Modi. At that auspicious moment, Prime Minister Modi said that the bridge was expected to herald a new chapter in India-Bangladesh ties. He said, "Connectivity is not only strengthening friendship between India and Bangladesh, but also proving to be a strong link of business." (The Daily Sun, 10 March 2021).

These messages from the two premiers clearly indicate that collaboration for trade facilitation is the main facet of Indo-Bangladesh friendship. Indeed, over the last decade or so government and non-government actors in both countries have strived to ensure maximum utilization of bilateral trade potential. We at the research institute Unnayan Shamannay have been deeply involved in collaborative research and related policy advocacies with CUTS International from India to promote the case for closer connectivity in the BBIN sub-region in general, and Bangladesh and India in particular. We have also been working with other non-governmental research institutes in India (Meghalaya), Bhutan, and Nepal.

Bangladesh and India have worked together for a long time to improve trade. The driving factors behind these efforts are aspirations of re-integrating the economies of a geographically integrated region with many complementarities, political aims to develop the borders as access points for integrated development, and ambitions to encourage optimal utilization of the demographic dividends in the region. These two countries and their South Asian neighbors can learn from the experience of ASEAN countries in trade collaboration. The ASEAN model was initiated through reduction in intra-regional tariffs and later moved on to enhancing connectivity (ASEAN Highway network, ASEAN open skies). As the ASEAN collaboration model matured, advanced ideas such as business incubation and telecommunication network and ASEAN power grid started to be realized. Commendably, Bangladesh and India have been replicating the ASEAN model of trade collaboration (of course, with due contextualization). And these two countries have been significantly successful in bringing two other neighboring countries, Bhutan and Nepal, into this trade facilitation discourse.

The Bangladesh-Bhutan-India-Nepal Motor Vehicle Agreement (BBIN-MVA) signed on 15 June 2015 permits member states to ply their vehicles across the sub-region for transportation and passengers. While utilization of full potential of the said agreement is still subject to upgradation of the facilities and regulation, it is a big leap in the right direction. Stakeholders are rightly enthusiastic about its potential outcome. Also, the agreement between Bangladesh and India Protocol on Inland Water Transit and Trade (PIWT&T) is allowing transport and transit between India and Bangladesh via waterways. Studies have shown that if the inland waterways can be optimally utilized for trade between the two countries, then travel/transportation costs may be reduced by 30 percent. That, of course, will require further financial and technological investment focused on related infrastructures. The two governments are also working to rekindle railway connectivity. Out of the six existing but defunct railway links, five have already been revived and work is underway to operationalize the sixth along with two new links. Air connectivity between Dhaka and Guwahati has been revived. Soon, many other Bangladeshi cities such as Sylhet and Chattogram will be connected by air with smaller towns/cities in eastern and northeast India. It is really encouraging to see that the two governments are going beyond road connectivity and encompassing all means of transportation for goods and passenger transportation (Bipul Chatterjee, The Economic Times, 20 March 2021).

India and Bangladesh have already initiated energy cooperation. India is now exporting 660 MW to Bangladesh and another 500 MW power transfer from Baharampur to Kushtia has been inaugurated recently. Bangladesh can play the role of 'power corridor' to link Arunachal province of India with the rest of that country. In fact, energy trade enhancement may result in the creation of BBIN power market in the future. Energy cooperation between the two countries should be expanded towards incorporating renewable energy as well. While Bangladesh has had significant experience in providing household based solar power energy solutions including solar irrigation in remote areas, India has commendable experience in operating large scale renewable energy projects. Obviously these two countries can learn from each other's experiences of innovative initiatives on renewable energy.

Improvement in connectivity as well as the visible political will to further improve it has had significant positive impact on the investment climate. Indian investment in Bangladesh is growing consistently. Total Indian investment proposals registered with Bangladesh Investment Development Authority (BIDA) is about USD 3 billion. These are to be invested in three Indian Special Economic Zones (SEZs) in Mongla, Bheramara, and Mirsarai. Yet, the true potential of bilateral trade is yet to be fully tapped. For example, Northeast India has a strong advantage in agricultural products.

And those can be fed into the very vibrant food processing industry of Bangladesh. In turn, Northeast India again can serve as a market for the processed food from Bangladesh. Surely, India-Bangladesh economic cooperation has the power to change the economic landscape of Northeast India (Kathuria, Sanjay, “Bangladesh Corridor Vital to India’s ‘Act East’ Policy”, The Hindustan Times, September 27, 2017). The point to be noted, however, is that reduction of tariff and non-tariff barriers and ensuring efficiency of the customs system are pre-requisites for success of this model. Digital Connectivity is also becoming equally important in bringing in people of both countries through the availability of broadband. Tripura is already accessing the benefits such digital connectivity from Bangladesh.

Using digital connectivity, both countries can remove barriers to services trade which are much greater than that of goods. This will help make growth more inclusive, enhancing the participation of small and medium entrepreneurs including women. A cooperative approach between the two countries in promoting services trade could lead to an explosion of digital services, as most businesses are transforming themselves digitally during the pandemic. For that matter, the regulators of the two countries or of the sub-region should sit down and iron out regulatory standards and trading conditions to fast-track the processes of liberalizing services. I can confidently tell the readers as a former financial regulator that this is entirely possible if both countries commit to promoting businesses in the region. The digitization of trade and services across the border will also be a smart move towards eliminating to a great extent the threat of climate change by enhancing opportunities for green businesses.

As we have already demonstrated, collaborations and/or facilitations need not always be very big. Smaller initiatives can also yield very positive results especially when people-to-people connectivity is of concern. For example, four ‘border haats’ are currently operational (in Sunamganj, Kurigram, Chhagalnaiya, and Kashba). The central banks of both countries played strategic role in streamlining the foreign exchange regulatory requirements to ease small trading in these border haats. Indeed, the countries need to learn from their experiences and work to improve on them. This small initiative of formalizing trade across the border has improved people-to-people cooperation and reduced the threat of insecurity arising out of informal trade, including that of drugs and guns. Both countries are now working on increasing the number of such border haats considering these results. Surely, this experience has the potential of transforming the entire border to a friendly special economic zone with win-win outcomes.

While there has been commendable progress in trade collaboration and bilateral trade between India and Bangladesh, much remains to be done. Bangladesh’s trade with India accounts for only 10 percent of Bangladesh’s total trade. The ratio is even smaller for India (only 1 percent). This appears to be especially miniscule when one compares these ratios with those of East Asian countries (50 percent of total trade). A recent World Bank report has shown that Bangladesh's export to India could increase by almost 182 percent, and India's export to Bangladesh by 126 percent. These ratios could further increase if connectivity improved. Then Bangladesh's export to India could increase by 297 percent, and India's export to Bangladesh could increase by 172 percent. The figures may appear staggering. But if one looks further into the benefits of increased connectivity then s/he can easily understand the extent to which trade could be enhanced through enhancement of connectivity. For example, in the absence of corridor/transit facilities a Northeast Indian trader must travel 1,600 km from Agartala to Kolkata (via Siliguri). But if s/he could travel via Bangladesh, then the distance would be less than 600 km. This distance could be even further reduced if that trader could access the Chittagong port (only 200 km from Agartala). Things are moving in that direction, but we must focus more on removing logistics bottlenecks and connecting local markets to regional corridors.

Improving connectivity to enhance trade can be a real 'win-win' for both Bangladesh and India. A recent World Bank report titled "Connecting to Thrive: Challenges and Opportunities of Transport Integration in Eastern South Asia" has inferred that seamless connectivity between the two countries could increase Bangladesh's national income by 17 percent and India's by 8 percent.

There are three driving forces in favor of further trade collaboration between India and Bangladesh. Firstly, the countries are enjoying unprecedented levels of political will of cooperation leading to significant easing of visa arrangements for both tourism and health services. The cultural and educational exchanges are also improving at a fast pace. Secondly, Bangladesh is the most vibrant economy in South Asia and India is the largest; both can enhance their income via enhanced connectivity and trade. Finally, in the post-pandemic world when all global powers are re-thinking their value chains, Bangladesh, India and their near neighbors must also think about further enhancing sub-regional cooperation. Beyond trade, both countries have demonstrated extraordinary mutual support during the pandemic by sharing PPEs and vaccines. India's whole-hearted support for making vaccines available to Bangladesh within such a short period of time will be remembered in the years to come. Long live India-Bangladesh Friendship.

COUNTRY PROFILE

BANGLADESH COUNTRY PROFILE

Bangladesh is Located in the north-eastern part of South Asia. The majestic Himalayas stand some distance to the north, while in the south lays the Bay of Bengal. West Bengal borders on the west and in the east lies the hilly and forested regions of Tripura, Mizoram (India) and Myanmar. These picturesque geographical boundaries frame a low lying plain of about 1,47,570 square kilometer, criss-crossed by innumerable rivers and streams. Mighty rivers are Padma (Ganges), Brahmaputra (Jamuna), Meghna and Karnafuli.

Bangladesh offers many tourist attractions, including archaeological sites, historical mosques and monuments, longest natural beach in the world, picturesque landscape, hill forests and wildlife, rolling tea gardens and tribes. The rich flora and fauna and colorful tribal life is very enchanting. Each part of the country offers distinctly different topography, flavors and delicacies. It is home to the Royal Bengal Tiger, freshwater pink dolphins, historical temples made of red earth.

Some of popular known tourist attractions are: Srimangal, where miles of tea gardens are located, Mainamati, Mahasthangarh, Paharpur for archaeology, Rangamati, Kaptai and Cox's Bazar for sight seeing, and the Sundarbans for wild life and the largest Mangrove forest of the world, and, Foy's Lake for scenic beauty.

Bangladesh has made remarkable progress in reducing poverty, supported by sustained economic growth. Based on the international poverty line of $1.90 per person per day, it reduced poverty from 44.2 percent in 1991 to 11.3 percent in 2018/19. In parallel, life expectancy, literacy rates and per capita food production have increased significantly. Progress was underpinned by 7 percent growth on average over the decade and reaching to 8.15 percent in 2018/19, according to official estimates. Rapid growth enabled Bangladesh to reach the lower middle-income country status in 2015. In 2018, Bangladesh fulfilled all three eligibility criteria for graduation from the UN's Least Developed Countries (LDC) list for the first time and is on track for graduation in 2024.

According to the recent World Bank Report Bangladesh is considered as World's 44th largest economy and willing to be the 23rd largest economy by 2041 and its GDP now USD 686 billion (PPP) and has been maintaining steady GDP growth rate of more than seven percent over the last decade . INDIA COUNTRY PROFILE

India is one of the oldest civilizations in the world with a kaleidoscopic variety and rich cultural heritage. It has achieved all-round socio-economic progress since its Independence. India has become self-sufficient in agricultural production and is now one of the top industrialized countries in the world and one of the few nations to have gone into outer space to conquer nature for the benefit of the people. It covers an area of 32,87,263 sq. km (1,269,346 sq mi), extending from the snow-covered Himalayan heights to the tropical rain forests of the south. As the 7th largest country in the world, India stands apart from the rest of Asia, marked off as it is by mountains and the sea, which give the country a distinct geographical entity. Bounded by the Great Himalayas in the north, it stretches southwards and at the Tropic of Cancer, tapers off into the Indian Ocean between the Bay of Bengal on the east and the Arabian Sea on the west. Lying entirely in the northern hemisphere, the mainland extends between latitudes 8° 4' and 37° 6' north, longitudes 68° 7' and 97° 25' east and measures about 3,214 km from north to south between the extreme latitudes and about 2,933 km from east to west between the extreme longitudes. It has a land frontier of about 15,200 km. The total length of the coastline of the mainland, Lakshadweep Islands and Andaman & Nicobar Islands is 7,516.6 km.

ROLE OF IBCCI

India and Bangladesh, being the closest of the neighbouring countries, have felt the need and desire for economic and bilateral trade cooperation on a long-term sustainable basis. Trade between the two countries has been growing rapidly since the early 1990s. India and Bangladesh offer natural markets for each other's products. In their mutual trade, they enjoy the advantages of reduced transaction costs and quicker delivery due to geographical proximity, common language, heritage and physical infrastructures. On that ground, the formation of a joint business chamber to boost trade between the two countries was a long felt necessity of the business communities of both the countries.

Keeping the above scenario in mind, the chamber started its journey in 2007 with the following objectives:

1. To solve bilateral business issues between India and Bangladesh.
2. To increase the export of Bangladesh to India.
3. To reduce the trade imbalance between India and Bangladesh.
4. To encourage the Indian investors to invest in Bangladesh.
5. To act as a one-stop business solution centre for the business communities of both countries.
6. To facilitate the transfer of technology between the two countries, in respect of industrial and commercial innovations.
7. To help set up an export-processing zone in Bangladesh where Indian investors will feel encouraged to invest.
8. To help solve problems relating to the issuance of visa for the businessmen of both the countries.
9. To encourage cultural exchanges between the two countries.
10. To pursue building infrastructural facilities in the borderland ports of Bangladesh.
11. To take up other relevant business issues.

New agreement to increase Bangladesh-India trade

By Fakrul Islam

Bangladesh's exports to India are six times more than that of its exports to six member countries of South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC). Bangladesh imports highest number of goods from India after China.

Now both countries have begun talks on signing a comprehensive economic partnership agreement (CEPA) to enhance trade relations. In fact, Bangladesh proposed the agreement focusing on the challenge during graduation from LDC (least developed country) status. Experts said if such deal is signed in addition to improving connectivity, trade between Bangladesh and India will increase.

The World Bank has released a report titled "Connecting to Thrive: Challenges and Opportunities of Transport Integration in Eastern South Asia" this month. The report said, today bilateral trade accounts for only about 10 per cent of Bangladesh's trade and a mere 1 per cent of India's trade. Bangladesh's exports to India could increase by 182 per cent and India's exports to Bangladesh by 126 per cent if the countries signed a free trade agreement. Improving transport connectivity between the two countries could increase exports even further, yielding a 297 percent increase in Bangladesh's exports to India and a 172 percent increase in India's exports to Bangladesh, the report added.

What will the new agreement cover?

According to the sources at the commerce ministry, talks on signing the Bangladesh-India comprehensive economic partnership agreement (CEPA) began last year. A study will be carried out on it in six months. The government has allocated Tk 9 million (90 lakh) to Bangladesh Foreign Trade Institute (BFTI) to conduct the study. A 10-member advisory committee headed by commerce secretary Md Jafar Uddin has been formed to facilitate the process. The committee held its first meeting at the secretariat on 23 March.

Sources said the BFTI presented an introductory report the meeting. India also submitted a similar report to the commerce ministry. The introductory report has underscored what the study will cover. The BFIT study will cover analysis of all types of agreements between Bangladesh and India, the state and potential of roadways, waterways, railway and airways, and analysis on trade statistics of both countries since independence.

According to the meeting sources, the study will also cover other issues including how bilateral trade is being disrupted because of tariff and non-tariff barriers, how to make customs station more efficient and how to make Asian Free Trade Area (SAFTA) more effective to increase trade.

The advisory committee will hold its next meeting in the last week of the next month. Negotiations will open after both countries conduct the studies separately. These will be reviewed. Amendments will be made. Then finally the agreement will be signed.

According to commerce ministry sources, India signed CEAP with Sri Lanka in 1998, Singapore in 2005, South Korea in 2009, New Zealand, Australia and Indonesia in 2010-11 and Thailand in 2015.

Regarding this, commerce secretary Md Jafar Uddin said “India is our tested friend. It’s normal that India as a big country will give us a bit more. However, export to India may face a little blow after (Bangladesh’s) graduation from LDC status. That is why the CEAP is being signed.”

“The study on CEAP will be completed in six months. Then both countries will negotiate. Once the CEAP is signed, alternative export opportunities to the country (India) will also emerge,” he added.

Export doubles in 10 years

In the outgoing fiscal year, Bangladesh exported goods worth USD50.5 million (5.05 crore) to Pakistan, USD 46 million (4.6 crore) to Nepal, USD38.4 (3.84 crore) to Sri Lanka, USD 5.76 million (57.66 lakh) to Afghanistan and 4.35 million (43.56 lakh) to Bhutan. In total, Bangladesh exported goods worth a little over USD150 million (15 crore) to six SAARC countries. So Bangladesh’s export to India was six times more than that of export volume to these six countries in last fiscal.

India is ninth largest export destination for Bangladeshi products. Records of export in July-January of the 2020-21 fiscal shows, export to India will exceed the last fiscal. According to Export Promotion Bureau (EPB), Bangladesh’s export to India stood at USD1.24 billion (124 crore) in 2018-19 fiscal, USD1.09 billion (109 crore) in 2019-20 fiscal. Goods worth USD860 million (86 crore) were exported to India in seven of the current 2020-21 fiscal.

Records of the EBP data show, Bangladesh’s export to India has more than doubled compared to last 10 years. Bangladesh exported goods worth USD512.5 million (51.25 crore) in 2010-11 fiscal. In fact, Bangladesh’s export to India increased after the country announced duty free access except for arms and drugs in 2011. The duty free export facility came to effect after then-India prime minister Manmohan Singh’s state visit to Dhaka.

Like export to India, imports from the country are also increasing. Records of Bangladesh Bank show, Bangladesh imported goods worth USD4.58 billion (458 crore) in 2010-11 fiscal. Imports increased to USD8.62 (862 crore) in 2017-18, but dropped to USD7.64 billion (768 crore).

According to the data from Bangladesh Bank, the trade gap with India was USD4.07 billion (407 crore) 10 years ago. It rose to USD 7.75 billion (775 crore) in 2017-18 fiscal, but dropped to USD4.67 billion (467 crore) in 2019-20 fiscal.

The trade gap isn't rising as imports from India have increased and exports from Bangladesh, too, have risen significantly. Trade remains almost stagnant as it was 10 years ago.

Bangladesh mainly exports products including readymade garments, jute and jute-processed products, leather-processed products, plastic products, fish, soft drinks, copper and edible oil while goods including rice, raw cotton, onion, motor vehicles, boilers, machinery, milk, dairy products, electronic products and iron were imported from India.

Indian loan and grant

According to sources at the Economic Relations Division (ERD), India is one of the largest development partners of Bangladesh. India has promised Bangladesh three LOCs (line of credits) worth 7.36 billion (736 crore) against 46 projects for 10 years from 2010.

Bangladesh receives this credit to implement various development projects including road, railways, water transportation and port, power, information and technology, health and technical projects. However, the Exim Bank of India has released USD8 million (80 crore) to date.

Bangladesh signed a deal worth USD1 billion with India under the first LOC in 2010. Later, India provided a grant worth USD140 million (14 crore) to the Padma Bridge project from this fund. Some 15 projects were financed by the remaining USD860 million (86 crore). Twelve of 15 projects have been implemented, Indian prime minister Narendra Modi first visited Bangladesh in June 2015. At that time, he announced the second LOC worth USD2 billion (200 crore). Later on, both countries signed agreement on it. Fifteen new projects were taken by this fund. Two projects have been implemented by the fund released so far. The third LOC worth USD4.5 billion (450 crore) was signed when prime minister Sheikh Hasina visited India in April 2017. Another 16 projects were financed by it.

Distinguished fellow of the non-government research organisation Centre for Policy Dialogue (CPD) Mustafizur Rahman told Prothom Alo that Bangladesh's exports to the country (India) had crossed USD 1 billion for the first time because of duty free facilities. However, the duty free facility will no longer be in effect after graduating from LDC status. Bangladesh has to prepare from now and both countries must find an alternative together, he added.

Mustafizur Rahman further said a comprehensive economic partnership agreement (CEPA) can be that alternative that may consist of three things – trade, investment and connectivity. However, Bangladesh has to be prepared to make some concessions if the CPEA is signed, he added.

This report appeared in the print and online edition of Prothom Alo and Fakrul Islam serving as senior Reporter of Prothom Alo.
